HE MARYVILLE

MAY GOD SFEED THE CYLINDERS OF AN HONEST, INTELLIGENT, AGGRESSIVE CHRISTIAN PRINTING PRESS, THE MIGHTIEST AGENCY ON EARTH FOR GOOD .- TALMAGE.

VOL. 6. NO. 2.

MARYVILLE, TENN., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 9, 1889.

$1.00 A YEAR

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4th, 1889. abolished in that Territory.

Senator Hoar has presented a ant to be a Congressman when ment on account of sex be prohi- es are easy enough then. bited.

Senator Sherman has presented a petition from the National Board of silver bullion and the coinage of be supended.

Senator Manderson presented a women asking that they be granted | 150 by the close of first month. the right of suffrage in the Territo-

Senator Chandler is still championing the rights of disfranchised voters in the South. This week he my Monday night. Several long presented a petition from Midway, smiles. South Carolina, asking Congress to take steps to amend or abolish Johnson house this week. state laws of registration affecting the rights of citizens to vote for ers for the coming yesr, last Sun-Federal officers.

he is never to hear the last of his week from Sevier County, making who are attending College. frouble on account of England and arrangements to send to school This week a resolu- here. correspondence with Great Britian repaired this week and most of in regard to the right ot fishing, them are now full. waters, and to the seizure or retions in regard to the same, and field of labor. whether any rules or regulations concerning such fishing or taking of seals are enforced against the subjects or vesstls of other countries. Congress reassembled on Wedpart of their owners. Such effects is disposed of, got right down to work on that measure, and will keep it up until the final votes after passing a bill giving the employes of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing an annual leave of 30 days, with pay, and a bill prohibiting any agent or attorney from receiving a fee in excess of $3 for securing an increase of pension on account of the increase of the disability for which the pension was originally granted, or for securing a special act of Congress in cases where the pension might be obtained under the general pension laws, went into committee of the whole on the River and Harbor bill, with as much cheerfullness as if that measure stood a chance-which it does not-of becoming a law.

Representative Springer, who seems to be acting independently is too strong a republican paper of the Democratic managers of the and is changing too many demo-House, has introduced a joint reso- crats over to the republican side, so lution for the admission as States they say, "stop my paper." Well gatherings that were held during of Arizona and Idaho. It was easy this is a free country, they have a the past two weeks. Sociability of Arizona and Idaho. It was easy enough to introduced the resolution, but to get it before the House for action, is an entirely different thing. However, Mr. Springer's thing. However, Mr. Springer's thing are good and I take but when you count what the intentions are good and I take but when you count what the intentions are good and I take but when you count what the besteak a happy issue for the Alpha Signal Society. From Knoxville where he had been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas Holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas, and a cheerful smile seems to have been the order of the Christmas Holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outward appearance, every one has had a merry Christmas holidays. If we may judge by the outwa intentions are good and I take but when you count what the mas, and a cheerful smile seems to pleasure in giving the credit to Times has done for Blount County, bespeak a happy issue for the year which he is entitled, dianapelis, presumably to confer the TIMES. with General Harrison in regard to New York's representation in the no further hearings would be grant- - Knoxville Journal.

ed by the Senate finance.committee to parties interested in the tariff bill, great pressure is being brought upon the members of that commit-Senator Elmunds, in presenting tee to make changes in the bill. A a petition from the Woman's number of changes have been Relief board of Salt Lake City, re- agreed upon by the Republican the ensuing term are very flattering. monstrating against any action of members of the committee, but Congress looking to the admission they discreetly refuse to make of Utah as a State, took occasion to them public until the time arrives state that he was happy to say that for their adoption. Just to give an there was not much danger of any idea of what some people want such action at this session. All will mention the fact that one man good citizens can heartily say, who was here this week handed a Amen, to this seatiment, and, in member of the committee a memoaddition, I will take the liberty of randum of forty changes he wanted expressing the hope that no such made in the bill, and became really action shall ever be taken until angry when he was told that it was poligamy shall have been "really extremely doubtful whether the and truly," as the children say, committee would see fit to oblige him. Oh, I can tell you, it is pleas-

Porter Academy.

The school here opened its spring of Trade asking that the purchase term Monday, with fine prospects. Many new students have entered silver dollars by the Government and more are coming. Come on, we will give you room.

There are now over 100 students petition from a large number of enrolled and we expect to reach

Dr. Lord was out from Maryville and preached a very interesting sermon, Sunday evening. There was a show at the Acade-

Mr. James Bogle moved into the

The Sabbath-school elected offic-

Poor Cleveland. It seems that Mr. Henry Gobble was down this taking seals, or navigating in Rev. R. O. Ayers preached to a Behring's sea or the adjacent large congregation Sunday, at 7:30. Rev. Melden (colored) left this lease of British vessels. Also, week for his work below Maryville. copies of regulations, rules or direc- We wish him success in his new

From Over the "Pond."

The TIMES was very despondent are glad to learn that she is better. for a half hour last Friday evening ials(?) and especially the one in Christmas vacation, is detained on nesday, and the members gave which he knocked the editor of the account of the serious illness of his little evidence of their holiday be- TIMES for criticising his paper, sister and will not return for a few yond a few rather bleared looking and advising him to jump around days. eyes and a little nervousness on the and pick up news items; but we got a special that evening announcare common among other people ing the fact that the people over in immediately after Christmas week. England are very fond of reading The Senate, which meets daily at the TIEEs, so we give it for the 11 o'clock until after the tariff bill benefit of the Sentinel. We want all the mugwumps and democrats who have stopped taking our paper see and know how we taken on the 21st. The House, stand on the other side of the opening of the College term. Atlantic in free-trade England.

Office of R. G. DUN & Co., H. FENTON, Ag't. Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 3, 1889.

EDITOR TIMES, Dear Sir: It may interest you to know that your paper is highly appreciated across the "Pond." 1 send it to England every week as a sample of the newspaper work of East Tennessee. If by chance I omit to mail a copy, the cry is, 'where is my Maryville paper."

Very truly yours, H. FENTON.

Democrats Stop the Times. The Democrats think the TIMES no Democrat that loves the progress Senator Hiscock has gone to In. of the county can refuse to take the cars will be running from Knox- They seem to very glad to conde-Notwithstanding the notice given ville through to Louisville, Ken-scend to lay aside their dignity as out before the holiday recess that tucky, by way of Cumberland Gap teachers and once more become bilities of our religious life, our to Northwestern markets.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Happenings and Items of Note Secured for Our College Subscribers and Their Friends

The prospects of the school for

The week of prayer is being observed at the College.

Prof. Crawford presided over the opening exercises of the College, Wednesday morning, in the absence of the Chairman, Prof. Regers.

Sam calculated going in a double column Sabbath eve. but he says, 'I thought I wouldn't."

petition asking that disfranchise- Congress is not in session. Promis- every hole for storing boys in Memorial Hall is full.

this study.

Several of the girls are contemtemplating the study of the Greek Language. Why should they not?

What would Maryville be without the College? The College supplies a good per cent. of the life of the town.

Our estimatable Matron, Mrs. Pierce, visited her old home in New Market, during the holidays.

New students are daily arriving.

stranger among strangers.

Scene in a class room. Teacher: What kind of a noun is kiss? Young lady, (with a blush,) both common and proper.

Miss Ida Alexander will not return to College a few weeks. She along with many others has been suffering with a severe cold, but we

S. A. Caldwell who went to his after reading the Sentinel spec- | home at New Market to spend the

The College Museum will be placed in the up-stairs of the new library building. Show-cases have been purchased and arranged to hold the collection.

A few of the students enjoyed a social time at the home of Miss

Look out! Clean your shoes; mands, and uses with great accuracy the scepter of cleanliness at the College Library.

The Seniors are beginning to puzzle themselves about International Law. We trust they may be be settled in a peacable way.

The College term opened January 2nd, with brighter prospects than ever before. There were more at the opening evercises than at this period in any former time. A wellfilled chapel shows that the friends of Maryville College appreciate the privilages of the institution.

Considering the number of social

Many of the former students who Before another Christmas day, places in the ranks of the students.

Prof. Crawford will give a through course of instruction in surveying this term, which we may well guess will be not only useful but interest-

Our fellow-student, A. Lindsay, recently from Scotland, conducted busy hum of a studious College Church, Sabbath evening. His subject was, "The christian life, a race." Text Heb., 12-1.

> Arrangements are being perfectthe Alpha Sigma Society, which est toil." will be held in the College chapel, Friday chaning, January 11th.

The Coemistry class have been studying about the manufacture, adulteration and refinement of Tennessee, returned to school last sugar, and the science of making week. Addison Clemen's informs us that bread. That is surely practical enough for practical purposes and persons.

Miss Lillian Colmar spent her vacation with Miss Stella Eakin.

The writing classes this term will go on under leadership of J. L.

The Freshman class completed a very interesting and profitable study of Laglish History under the instruction of Prof. Wilson, and day evening, for the benefit of the lagrangement of the lagrang Warful. A good many of the have commenced an outline study pastor. students are taking an interest in of Universal History, with quite a number of additions of members to the class.

Prof. Rogers returned Wednesday evening from his vacation trip in the southern part of the state. He reports a very busy time, having

Every student should make a choice of one of the three courses of study laid down in the Catalogue of

The students of the regular Co The steam saw mill here is doing first few days of the new students lege classes were each required to Mr. Thomas Hackney, a former in the near future. They were hood. written under the direction of Prof.

The College Library was very the friends have kindly remember- will remain at Guilford. ed this important branch of the College with gifts of valuable books. Many are availing themselves of the advantages of the James R. Hill, Loan Library.

The College Y. W. C. A. meet every Sabbath afternoon and Monday evening in the reception room at Baldwin Hall. They have good meetings. As members the association numbers about forty.

The first regular meeting of the College Y. M. C. A. of the term, was held in the College chapel last Sabbath afternoon. It was a very interesting as well as a profitable meeting. The boys of this associa-Rada Mathes on the eve before the tion have good reason for encouragement in their work, the average attendence last term was forty-five. tread softly! Isaac Wycoff com- The meetings are held every Sabbath afternoon at 2p, m. All of the boys of the College are invited and urged to attend.

The College Literary Societies met and held the regular elections last Friday evening. The elections able so to arrange matters that in resulted as follows: Bainonian So- Esq., officiating. Mr. Beals is a the future national disputes may clety; Misses Jennie McCulloch, brother of S. R. and L. H. Beals Pres., Cora Means, Vice Pres., and his home is it Kansas. The Anna Raak, Cor. Sec., Annie bride is an estimable young lady Eakin, Rec. Sec., Ella Davis, Libra- and is loved and respected by all rian, Lucy Minnis, Treasurer, Mollie Caldwell, Censor.

> Officers of the Athenian Society, A. W. Morton, Treasurer, A. J. Harmon, F. A. Lamon, Ed. Minnis

Officers of the Alpha Sigma Soci-

Prof. S. T. Wilson occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church, returned and taken their former Mark 11:11. The speaker said that places in the ranks of the students, we though the least in the kingdom pounds. of heaven are greater than was John the Baptist in four things; The knowledge we have, the possimission, and our power.

THE COLORED PEOPLE.

News Items Concerning the Color-ed People in and Around Mary-tille, Cleaned by our Special Isaiah Gorman, of Chattan

Rev. T. F. Blackman, rastor ed for the annual entertainment of Sabbath morning. Subject, "Hon-

Sabbath evening. .

F. N. Institute last week.

There will be an entertainment store, one pottery shop. at the 2nd Pres. Church on the evening of the 18th inst.

Harry H. Henry went over to Knoxville Thursday morning.

Mr. James Crockett, of Virginia, preached twice and lectured four and the Themas Yeary, of Claiy, Tennessee, came y evening to attend the College, namely, The Classical Calliopean Society next Friday county, in the advancement of Rev. J. H. Cooper conducted Latin-Scientific or English-Scienti- night is, Resolved, That Canada our material interests. Under the

and adopted by the Senate calling some good work. The dormitories life as plesant as possible, remem-write an oration last term which resident of this county but now of success, let every man put his hand upon the President for copies of upon the Academy grounds are being bering that he himself was once a will be delivered before the public lows, is visiting in the neighbor- to the wheel and push and pull in > week from Guilford College, N. C. age and fight, there are always Her return was caused by the con- some such on the surface in alluseful to the students last term and tinued illness of her mother. Her great movements. The way to many books were used. Some of companion, Miss Jesse Johnson, beat them is to have no arguments with them, byt push steadily on in-

Miss Annie McReynolds and the the work. Misses Kizer have returned to the Centena: y College, Cleveland, Ten-

An unexpected number of new

the route to Maryville by way of God. living at these points.

the residence of H. H. Jones, Uni- May Brother IJams be spared totia Mr. James C. Beals to Miss preach many more such stirring Nancy Lee, daughter of Ephriam discourses as that delivered last Lee, living near town, S. Mathews, Sabbath, who know her. Her absence will be especially felt in the Sundayschool and church where she is a W. J. Stewart, Pres., J. N. McGin. constant worker. After the wedley, Vice Pres., J. B. Dandridge, ding the pair left for the home Mr. Sec., Sen J. Katayama, Librarian, Beals' brother in Loudon county, constant worker. After the wedfrom whence, on the following day, they left for their western home.

W. R. Jones returned this week from Knoxville where he had been

J. O. LEE.

Huffstetler's Store.

N. M. Costner and family removed from their farm and settled near Maryville. They will be missed in .. this locality.

D, A. Huffstetler bought the farm. of H. M. Costner, and now occupies College Hill is lively with the the services at the Presbyterian returned to school Saturday eve that homestead. They are warming welcomed to this locality.

The school of L. T. Hickman of the A. M. E. Zien Church, preach- of the literary society, consisting of closed on last Friday with exercises declamations, dialogue, debate, select reading and music. The school was a great success. Mr, Hickman Rev. Samuel McDonald creached who lives near Ebenezer, Tennes. at the A. M. E. Zion Church last see, left for his home bast Saturday. D. Huffstetler was badly in-Mr. William Hale, of Soddy, lured in loading and hauling hay, by falling off the wagou. . Hannah, Joe Tuck and Messrs. Gibsen, Wilse and Sami. Tullock, have one to Mary-Chance, returned to school at the File College. Our roung people. will miss them.

Our village has a population of a wedding or two.

Huffstetler has a postoffice, one work in which it expects ev izen to assist—in making Ms a manufacturing town. To make It a success it will take some money to accomplish the work, but when it is done all can see what The subject for debate at the the gain will be to the town and chapel exercises Thursday morning and spent the day with his family who are attending College.

NTY CARPENTER.

should be annexed to the United progress intended to be accomplished, there will be benefits to every day-laborer, mechanic, business. ed, there will be benefits to every man, professional man, manufactur terests are to be looked after and the right directions. There may be Miss Cordie Lee returned last a few old fogies who will discour-

The Sermon.

Rev. Mr. Ijams preached in the M. E. Church last Sabbath from students from surrounding coun- John 3:5. It was such a discourse ties have entered school here since as fills every warm christian heart the holidays and the Homes have with tender love for his God and about all that can be accommodated Savior. Many who heard it will never forget the beautiful lessons A new postoffice by the name of inculcated. That discource was Cliff has been established at Big sound ethically, theologically, scrip-Springs, mail being supplied from turally and experimentally. Let the postoffice here. A petition is the world hear ten thousand morebeing circulated and numerously such sermons and christians will be signed, asking for a continuation of cheered and sinners will be won to the former office of Tutt, that office We need more heart-preaching; to be re-established should the pro- sermons on fire with God's love in posed route go into operation. An the speakers ransomed soul. Yes arrangement of this kind would be we want intellectual preaching, a great convenience to the people but it must be surcharged with God's power in the regenerated. Married, on Sunday, Dec. 30th, at heart of the speaker.

P. M. BARTLETT-

Blount's Industries.

There will be some important changes in Maryville to be anounced before the season passes. Before another packing season comes Maryville will have a large packing house, The evidence that it will pay is so apparent that a number of gentlemen will engage in it Beals' brother in Loudon county, in another direction. There is no reason why Blount County men should not have and control this prosperous opening offered here in the packing business.

A Swindler.

Some two or three months since pounds. According to the books of a fellow came here soliciting adverthe town scales, there have been tising and job work. He took quite weighed and shipped from this a number of orders at such prices place the past season, 419 hogs, as pleased his customers, and re-Sabbath morning and delivered as The aggregate weight was 120,- ceived the pay in advance. That have been teaching last term have cal and spiritual. The text was been 181 head weighing 152 049 advertisers and their been 181 head weighing 152,049 advertisers and their money were soon separated. The same fellow The mill company report 100,000 made friends up the East Tennesee feet of lumber sawed and shipped railroad. His prices were so low that it showed all the newspaper men to be swindlers.